Dear

After a careful investigation, I have concluded that you violated a [policy, regulation, or list alleged misconduct].

This letter constitutes a formal warning. [If applicable, include any requirements such as apologies, or suggestions for improvement.]

Continued violations of policies and regulations may cause for further, more serious, disciplinary action.

A copy of this letter will be placed in your UCEAP file and shared with your campus study abroad office.

If you have questions or need clarification, please contact me.

Note to SC: In the event the reprimand is a follow-up of previous offenses that were not resolved and the action is considered as a continuation of constructive discipline, the former incidents will be restated. Additionally, if the student failed to take any corrective action previously agreed to, this fact must be included.
