

EAP STUDENTS

Economics department approval is required for all Economics courses. To enroll in Economics courses, please email the appropriate department representative the following items:

- 1) your UCSB perm number,
- 2) your unofficial transcripts translated into English, and
- 3) the Economics classes you wish to take.

There is no guarantee of course enrollment. Maximum enrollment for any quarter is four economics courses. The Economics Undergraduate Office is open from 8-12 and 1-5pm Monday-Friday.

Undergraduate courses (numbered 1-199): Cindy Benelli Office: North Hall 3018 benelli@econ.ucsb.edu

Graduate courses (numbered 200-599): Mark Patterson Office: North Hall 2120 mark@econ.ucsb.edu

Undergraduate

Economics Course prerequisites:

- Econ 1, 2, 9 – There are no prerequisites.
- Econ 10A, 100B, 100C, 101, 114A –Intro to Microeconomics, Intro to Macroeconomics, Calculus, and Statistics.
- Econ 106, 114B, 115, 122, 140A, 150A, 160, , 184, 189, 191's– Intermediate Microeconomics, Calculus and Statistics.
- Econ 116ABC, 117A, 120, 134AB, 140BC, 150B, 152, 153, 155, 170, 171, 174, 175, 176, 177– Intermediate Microeconomics, Intro to Econometrics, Calculus and Statistics.
- Econ 130, 133, 135, 143, 180, 181 – Intermediate Microeconomics, Intermediate Macroeconomics, Calculus and Statistics.

Accounting Course prerequisites:

- Econ 3AB – There are no prerequisites.
- Econ 118, 137A, 138A – Intro to Financial Accounting.
- Econ 136ABC, 182 – Intermediate Financial Accounting.
- Econ 139, 132AB Completion of Intermediate Accounting.

Graduate

All Graduate courses require a Bachelor's Degree. Limited exceptions are allowed. Please contact Mark Patterson for details.

Masters Economic Course prerequisites include but are not limited to:

- Econ 205AB, 208, 226, 234AB, 240ABC, 274 – Intermediate Microeconomics I & II, Calculus, Statistics, Linear Algebra and Intermediate Macroeconomics.

Ph.D. Economics Courses:

- Enrollment limited to PhD students only. Contact Mark Patterson for exceptions.