BRINGING THE WORLD TO YOU
A Leading Provider in Study Abroad for 50 years
Since 1962, the University of California Education Abroad Program (UCEAP) has helped thousands of UC students benefit from international education. You can study abroad on one of 300 programs in 35 countries while receiving UC credit and earning UC grades.

Our mission is to equip UC students with the knowledge, understanding, and skills for work and life in a globally interdependent and culturally diverse world.

UCEAP brings the world to you with:
- A variety of program models to meet your needs and interests
- Summer, short-term, and year options
- UC financial aid and access to more scholarships and grants
- Fieldwork, independent research, and internship opportunities

See the World with Confidence
Going abroad on the official UC study abroad program allows you to enjoy exceptional value and perks including:
- UC financial aid that’s re-packaged and customized to your program’s costs
- Extended payment plan with ZERO interest
- Exclusive scholarships for UC students studying abroad

WHERE DO YOU WANT TO GO?
Choose from 300 programs in 35 countries. To find the program that’s right for you, visit our interactive World Explorer media gallery for student stories, photos, and videos.

Visit us online for more information and a catalog of our programs.

The information in the publication is correct as of summer 2011 and subject to change. Updates are available on the UCEAP website.
So much of what students learn in college is book-based; there is something invaluable to connecting the intellectual world with a personal and visceral experience.

—Christine Deakers, UC Berkeley

I have never felt so passionate and driven. Overcoming the challenges of starting a non-profit (RiseUpGhana.org) has given me the confidence to pursue interests with new energy. The best part was that UCEAP provided us with the base we needed to do it all ourselves.

—Jeremy Kirshbaum, UC Santa Cruz

Internships • Volunteering • Global Citizenship

The UC Education Abroad Program is an excellent opportunity to become deeply familiar with another country and culture. I learned more about myself while expanding my worldview and would highly recommend studying abroad.

—Brian Pizano, UC Riverside

This has been the best experience in my college career. No UC class can teach you what you learn in the field.

—Daisy Lora, UC Berkeley

Although UCEAP did in fact offer me the world, it certainly did not stop there. The experiences I have been able to extrapolate from my work abroad have surpassed all my expectations.

—Bridget Martinez, UC Merced

So much of what students learn in college is book-based; there is something invaluable to connecting the intellectual world with a personal and visceral experience.

—Christine Deakers, UC Berkeley

UEAP will not set you back academically. It will change your outlook on the world and you will gain a new perspective.

—Ian Ryen, UC Santa Barbara

I have never felt so passionate and driven. Overcoming the challenges of starting a non-profit (RiseUpGhana.org) has given me the confidence to pursue interests with new energy. The best part was that UCEAP provided us with the base we needed to do it all ourselves.

—Jeremy Kirshbaum, UC Santa Cruz

UEAP was one of my best memories in college and life. I had the chance to pursue research opportunities, enhance my qualifications, and garner a new network of professional and student acquaintances.

—Shaun Galvan, UC Irvine

So much of what students learn in college is book-based; there is something invaluable to connecting the intellectual world with a personal and visceral experience.

—Christine Deakers, UC Berkeley