

POLITICAL SCIENCE

I took courses from esteemed faculty and a former ambassador. I gained new perspectives on Middle Eastern politics and a better understanding of foreign policy and domestic politics.

POLITICAL SCIENCE

Studying abroad offers an exciting framework for your major, equipping you with an international résumé and confidence in your field. On UCEAP, you can earn UC credit as you take part in a life-changing internship with a member of parliament, build professional networks learning from senators and other political elites, or immerse yourself in a highly regarded program built just for political science students.

UC-Approved Courses

All our courses abroad award UC credit and grades. Among many topics, explore international relations, democratization, political economy, comparative politics, globalization, or political theory.
