The University of California, in accordance with applicable Federal and State law and University policy, does not discriminate on the basis of race, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity, pregnancy,* disability, age, medical condition (cancer-related), ancestry, marital status, citizenship, sexual orientation, or status as a Vietnam-era veteran or special disabled veteran. The University also prohibits sexual harassment. This nondiscrimination policy covers admission, access, and treatment in University programs and activities. Inquiries regarding the University's student-related nondiscrimination policies may be directed to the campus Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action office.

*Pregnancy includes pregnancy, childbirth, and medical conditions related to pregnancy or childbirth.

INTRODUCTION

Get Ready for the Experience of a Lifetime

Very soon you will be on your way to new adventures and unique experiences abroad. There is much to do before your leave. Do you know about all the UC resources and support available to you?

In this guide you will find:

- Steps to follow that will help you prepare for UCEAP.
- Tips to help you make the most of your opportunities abroad.
- Standards developed to ensure your safety and a successful program.

To use this guide, select the chapter from the index page or the left-hand navigation panel. You may click on any topic to read additional information.

Be sure to also access your Program Guide for custom information about your location and program. You can find this guide, your Predeparture Checklist, and other instructions and resources (program calendar, UCEAP Student Budget, etc.) in the Participants portal of the UCEAP website.

If you have any questions along the way, we're here to help. You can contact your personal UCEAP program advisor or call our main line at (805) 893-4762.

Have a wonderful journey with UCEAP!
