

Peace Corps Prep Guide

UCEAP has partnered with the Peace Corps to offer a program that will prepare you for international development fieldwork and potential Peace Corps service. To meet the goals of the program, you'll build four core competencies through interrelated coursework, hands-on experience, and professional development support. These four competencies are the following:

1. TRAINING AND EXPERIENCE IN A WORK SECTOR

2. FOREIGN LANGUAGE SKILLS

3. INTERCULTURAL COMPETENCE

4. PROFESSIONAL AND LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

This document explains each of these requirements in detail and provides specific examples from your campus. Use this guide to map out your UCEAP Peace Corps Prep course of study. In particular, refer to this when completing your Peace Corps Prep application, where you'll need to document how you plan to fulfill each requirement. This guide aligns point-by-point with each section of the application. Relevant undergraduate coursework, training, and experiences completed prior to your application can be used to fulfill Peace Corps Prep requirements. Be sure to include them in your application.

1. Training and experience in a specific work sector

3 APPROVED COURSES + 50 HOURS RELATED EXPERIENCE + REFLECTION ESSAY

Leveraging concrete knowledge and skills is central to on-the-ground international development work. Through this Peace Corps Prep program, you will begin to build a professional specialty, which should serve your career well whether or not you become a Peace Corps Volunteer.

Detailed below are six sectors in which Peace Corps Volunteers serve. Choose one sector to focus on and complete at least 3 courses that align with that specific work sector (they can but do not need to come from your academic major or minor). You also must accumulate a minimum of 50 hours of volunteer or work experience at home or abroad in that same sector—preferably in a teaching or outreach capacity—and write a reflection essay (500 words minimum) about it. While you should include a description of your position and responsibilities, the majority of the essay should focus on how your experience prepared you for your chosen work sector.

PEACE CORPS TIP

If you intend to apply to the Peace Corps, the best way to assure that you will be a strong candidate is to explore Peace Corps' openings and identify the type of assignments in which you'd like to serve, then review the positions' required and desired qualifications and build them up accordingly. In the process, you should fulfill these Peace Corps Prep experiential requirements. Please note that actual Peace Corps assignments are based on local needs and thus may or may not align seamlessly with your qualifications. Flexibility is central to the Peace Corps experience.

EDUCATION

Teach lessons that last a lifetime. Education is the Peace Corp's largest program area. Volunteers play an important role in creating links among schools, parents, and communities by working in elementary, secondary, and postsecondary schools as math, science, conversational English, and resource teachers or as early grade reading and literacy teacher trainers. Volunteers also develop libraries and technology resource centers.

IF YOU CHOOSE EDUCATION, TAKE 3 COURSES FROM ONE OF THE FOLLOWING AREAS:

- Education
- English or Linguistics
- TEFL/TESL
- Mathematics
- Computer Science
- Engineering
- Any Physical or Biological Science

APPLICABLE COURSES AT UCLA:

- DIS STD 129. Theory, Policy, and Practice of Special Education
- EDUC 123. Teaching Profession
- ESL 109. Literature and Language of Multilingual Students
- EPS SCI 123. Geosciences Outreach
- SCI EDU 100SL. Classroom Practices in High School Science

And build 50 hours of related field experience through an activity such as teaching in a classroom, with a community outreach organization, or in a formal tutoring capacity. Teaching subjects may include English as a Foreign/Second Language, special education, drama, or a STEM subject.

EXAMPLES OF APPLICABLE ACTIVITIES AT YOUR CAMPUS AND WITH UCEAP:

- Interning in a K-12 classroom through the Center for Community Learning
- Volunteering with Advancing Careers in Engineering and Science (ACES) to tutor local LAUSD students
- Teaching English to Thai school children as part of an internship when you study abroad at Thammasat University in Bangkok, Thailand
- Volunteering to teach English to Russian school children in St. Petersburg as part of the Russian Area Studies program

HEALTH

Serve on the front lines of global health. Health Volunteers work within their communities to promote important topics such as nutrition, maternal and child health, basic hygiene, and water sanitation. Volunteers also work in HIV/AIDS education and prevention programs to train youth as peer educators, develop appropriate education strategies, provide support to children orphaned by the pandemic, and create programs that provide emotional and financial support to families and communities affected by the disease.

IF YOU CHOOSE HEALTH, TAKE 3 COURSES FROM ONE OF THE FOLLOWING AREAS:

Nursing
Nutrition or Dietetics
Health Education
Health Sciences
Biological Sciences
Environmental or Sanitary Engineering

APPLICABLE COURSES AT UCLA:

COM HLT 130. Nutrition and Health
COMM ST 181. Campus/Community Health and Wellness Promotion
GLB HLT 100. Global Health and Development
HLT POL 140. Foundations of Maternal and Child Health
LIFESCI M174 Health Disparities
MED M160A. Health Outreach and Education for At-Risk Populations

And build 50 hours of related field experience through an activity such as volunteering or working in such areas as HIV/AIDS outreach, hospice, family planning counseling, emergency medical technician (EMT) or CPR teaching/certification, maternal health, and hands-on caregiving in a hospital, clinic, or lab technician setting. Other activities include health-related counseling or teaching.

EXAMPLES OF APPLICABLE ACTIVITIES AT YOUR CAMPUS AND WITH UCEAP:

Working as a resident advisor in a dormitory, as a peer nutritionist, or as a sexually transmitted infections counselor

Serving as an AIDS Ambassador at UCLA and teaching health education to local high school students

Participating in service learning in Oaxaca as part of the Family and Community Health program in Mexico

Interning with a public health NGO as part of the Community Public Health program at the University of Botswana

PEACE CORPS TIP

Nearly two-thirds of Peace Corps Volunteers serve in Education or Health. Coursework and meaningful experience in one of these areas—especially teaching English as a second/foreign language—produce some of the strongest candidates.

ENVIRONMENT

Help forge a global movement to protect our planet. Volunteers lead grassroots efforts in their communities to protect the environment and strengthen understanding of environmental issues. They teach environmental awareness in elementary and secondary schools and to youth groups and community organizations, empowering communities to make their own decisions about how to protect and conserve the local environment. Volunteers also address environmental degradation by promoting sustainable use of natural resources.

IF YOU CHOOSE ENVIRONMENT, TAKE 3 COURSES FROM ONE OF THE FOLLOWING AREAS:

Environmental Science
Natural Resources Conservation
Wildlife Biology
Natural Resources or Wildlife Management
Forestry
Biology, Botany, or Ecology
Earth Sciences

APPLICABLE COURSES AT UCLA:

A&O SCI 104. Fundamentals of Air and Water Pollution
ARCH&UD CM153. Introduction to Sustainable Architecture and Community Planning
EE BIOL 116. Conversation Biology
ENVIRON 157. Energy, Environment, and Development
ENVIRON C185A. Foundations of Environmental Health Science

And build 50 hours of related field experience through an activity such as educating the public on environmental or conservation issues, working on environmental campaigns, or providing technical assistance and training in natural resource management. Other activities include conducting biological surveys of plants or animals, gardening, farming, nursery management, organic or low-input vegetable production, or landscaping.

EXAMPLES OF APPLICABLE ACTIVITIES AT YOUR CAMPUS AND WITH UCEAP:

Providing technical assistance and training in natural resource management
Volunteering with Sustainable Youth at UCLA
Completing a capstone research project as part of the Pacific Island Environmental & Community Health program in the Solomon Islands
Conducting tropical biology research as part of the Tropical Biology and Conservation program in Costa Rica

AGRICULTURE

Lead grassroots efforts to fight hunger in a changing world. Agricultural Volunteers work with small-scale farmers and families to increase food security and production and adapt to climate change while promoting environmental conservation practices. They introduce farmers to techniques that prevent soil erosion, reduce the use of harmful pesticides, and replenish the soil. They work alongside farmers on integrated projects that often combine vegetable gardening, livestock management, agroforestry, and nutrition education.

IF YOU CHOOSE AGRICULTURE, TAKE 3 COURSES FROM ONE OF THE FOLLOWING AREAS:

- Agronomy
- Horticulture
- Botany
- Entomology
- Agricultural Science
- Agribusiness
- Agricultural Economics
- Environmental Science
- Biology

APPLICABLE COURSES AT UCLA:

- COM HLT 131. Healthy Food Access in LA: History and Practice of Urban Agriculture
- ENVIRON M114. Soil and Water Conservation
- GEOG 132. Food and Environment
- MCD BIO C150. Plant Communication

And build 50 hours of related field experience through an activity such as working with a large-scale or family-run business involving vegetable gardening, farming, nursery work, tree planting or care, urban forestry, landscaping, livestock care and management, or fish cultivation and production. Other activities include teaching or tutoring the public in environmental or agricultural issues/activities and working on the business management or marketing side of a commercial farm.

EXAMPLES OF APPLICABLE ACTIVITIES AT YOUR CAMPUS AND WITH UCEAP:

- Volunteering in school gardens with the Garden Mentoring Project
- Interning with an agriculture-focused NGO in Accra while studying abroad at the University of Ghana

YOUTH IN DEVELOPMENT

Empower the next generation of changemakers. Volunteers work with youth in communities on projects that promote engagement and active citizenship, including gender awareness, employability, health and HIV/AIDS education, environmental awareness, sporting programs, and information technology.

IF YOU CHOOSE YOUTH IN DEVELOPMENT, TAKE 3 COURSES FROM ONE OF THE FOLLOWING AREAS:

- Social Work
- Counseling
- Community Development
- Family Studies
- Human Development
- Development Psychology

APPLICABLE COURSES AT UCLA:

- COMM ST 116. Communication and Conflict in Couples and Families
- EDUC 120. Early Childhood Development
- EDUC 128. Adolescent Psychosocial Development: Problem and Potentialities
- SOCIOL M174. Sociology of Family
- PSYCH 134I. Child, Family, and Community
- PSYCH 177. Counseling Relationships

And build 50 hours of related field experience through an activity such as teaching or counseling in at-risk youth programs. Other activities include planning, organizing, assessing community needs, counseling, and leadership, in areas such as education, youth development, health and HIV/AIDS, the environment, and/or business.

EXAMPLES OF APPLICABLE ACTIVITIES AT YOUR CAMPUS AND WITH UCEAP:

- Volunteering with Project MAC as a tutor and mentor to at-risk youth
- Volunteering with CHAMPs as tutor to youth in Echo Park
- Interning full-time at a community development or children's rights organization as part of the Semester in Mumbai with Internship program

COMMUNITY ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Harness 21st-century tools to help communities lift themselves. Volunteers work with development banks, nongovernmental organizations, and municipalities to strengthen infrastructure and encourage economic opportunities in communities. They frequently teach in classroom settings and work with entrepreneurs and business owners to develop and market their products. Some Volunteers also teach basic computer skills and help communities take advantage of technologies such as e-commerce, distance learning, and more.

IF YOU CHOOSE COMMUNITY ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT, TAKE 3 COURSES FROM ONE OF THE FOLLOWING AREAS:

- Business or Public Administration
- Nonprofit Management
- Accounting, Banking or Finance
- Computer Science and related majors
- Graphic Design
- Mass Communications
- International Business

APPLICABLE COURSES AT UCLA:

COMM ST 148. Integrated Marketing Communications
ECON 112. Policies for Economic Development
INST DV 110. Economic Development and Culture Change
MGMT 107. Business Communications

And build 50 hours of related field experience through an activity such as working with businesses, organizations, or cooperatives in accounting, finance, microfinance, management, project management, budgeting, or marketing (including website design and online marketing). Other activities include starting and running your own business or other entrepreneurial activity, founding or leading a community- or school-based organization, and training others in computer literacy, maintenance, and repair.

EXAMPLES OF APPLICABLE ACTIVITIES AT YOUR CAMPUS AND WITH UCEAP:

Interning with UCLA Volunteer Center's Social Media and Marketing Internship Program
Assisting an NGO with graphic design as part of an internship when you study abroad at Fudan University

2. Foreign language skills

REQUIREMENTS VARY BY LANGUAGE

Working across cultures often entails verbal and nonverbal languages distinct from your own. Building foreign language skills is thus a second key component of the Peace Corps Prep curriculum.

Peace Corps Prep minimum language course requirements align with those needed by applicants to the Peace Corps itself, which vary by linguistic region. This requirement can also be fulfilled by a letter of proficiency from a professor or a score of intermediate or higher on a placement test.

LATIN AMERICA: Individuals wanting to serve in Spanish-speaking countries must apply with strong intermediate proficiency. This typically means completing three quarters or two semesters of intermediate-level Spanish.

WEST AFRICA: Individuals wanting to serve in French-speaking African countries should be proficient in French or Portuguese, usually through one intermediate or higher course.

EVERYWHERE ELSE: The Peace Corps has no explicit language requirements for individuals applying to serve in most other countries. However, you will still likely learn and utilize another language during service, so it is helpful to have taken at least one foreign language class.

3. Intercultural competence

ONE TERM ABROAD + REFLECTION ESSAY + 3 APPROVED COURSES

Engaging thoughtfully and fluidly across cultures begins with one's own self-awareness. With this learning objective, you will deepen your cultural agility through a mix of introspective courses and a term studying abroad in which you learn about others while reflecting upon your own self in relation to others. The goal is for you to build your capacity to shift perspective and behavior around relevant cultural differences.

Study abroad can be a beneficial precursor to service abroad in many ways. It can foster resilience, self-sufficiency, and global awareness and prepares you for the intercultural realities inherent to Peace Corps service. Study abroad with UCEAP for at least one term and write a reflection essay (500 words minimum) on how living in and interacting with another culture has prepared you to build relationships and integrate yourself into a new community.

Take at least one diversity and inclusion course to help you increase cultural self- and other-understanding, building your adaptability around relevant cultural differences. Examples would be Intercultural Communication, Multicultural Counseling, or courses that integrate self-reflection into the study of marginalized groups (i.e., classes focused on race, gender, sexuality, or disabilities).

APPLICABLE COURSES AT UCLA:

- DIS STD 150. Human Rights, International Development, and Disability
- GENDER M167. Contested Sexualities
- ANTHRO 134. Cultural Construction of Gender and Sexuality
- AF AMER M120. Race, Inequality, and Public Policy

Take at least two global or area studies courses such as international development, area studies (i.e., Black studies, Chican@ studies, Middle East studies, etc.), the economics of poverty, peace studies, cultural anthropology, world literature, etc. Global/area studies course 2 can also be fulfilled by studying abroad for a term on a UCEAP program in a country that has at some point hosted Peace Corps Volunteers.

APPLICABLE COURSES AT UCLA:

- POL SCI 126. Peace and War
- GEOG M128. Global Environment and Development: Problems and Issues.
- CHICANO 120. Immigration and Chicano Community
- ANTHRO 163Q. Societies of Central Asia

PEACE CORPS TIP

Prolonged intercultural experiences—such as volunteering abroad, supporting new immigrants or refugees acculturated to the United States, or volunteering in diverse schools—would also strengthen your Peace Corps candidacy significantly.

4. Professional and leadership development

RESUME AND INTERVIEW SUPPORT + LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE + ONLINE PRESENCE

Peace Corps service and similar international development work opportunities are highly professional and selective. Peace Corps Prep requires four specific activities that will strengthen your candidacy for the Peace Corps (or any other professional endeavor).

Have your resume critiqued by a career counselor at the Career Center.

Attend “A Student’s Guide to Acing the Interview” workshop at the Career Center (offered before every quarterly fair).

Complete at least one significant leadership experience (such as organizing a campus event, leading a work or volunteer project, or serving on the executive board of a student organization) and write a reflection essay (500 words minimum). While you should include a description of your leadership activity, the majority of the essay should focus on how your experience has prepared you to partner with communities to make a difference.

Using your reflection essays and resume, develop an e-portfolio or LinkedIn profile to highlight your experience, skills, and qualifications in your chosen work sector.

Alumni Mentoring

Although not required, you are strongly encouraged to sign up for the UCEAP alumni mentoring program. You will be paired with an alum that is currently serving in Peace Corps or who is a Returned Peace Corps Volunteer. This is a wonderful opportunity to hear about their Peace Corps experience, ask for advice, and learn how they transitioned from Peace Corps to career.

If you are considering applying to Peace Corps, we suggest that you meet with UCLA’s Peace Corps recruiter before you apply to discuss your application and any questions you might have.
