During the first month, students participate in the Intensive Language Program (ILP) at the Casa de California.

After the first month, students begin courses at the National Autonomous University of Mexico (UNAM). Most students take courses at the Ciudad Universitaria, UNAM’s main campus, located just over one mile from the UCEAP Study Center.

Throughout the program, students visit museums, participate in cultural activities, attend a Ballet Foklorico performance, and take day trips, including a visit to see the pyramids in Teotihuacan.

After the first month, students begin courses at the National Autonomous University of Mexico (UNAM). Most students take courses at the Ciudad Universitaria, UNAM’s main campus, located just over one mile from the UCEAP Study Center.