Sciences Po Language Track Selection

Sciences Po students have the option to enroll in one of three language tracks: the English track, the French track, or the Combination track. The French language requirement is different depending on the track you choose.

Please select the language track of your choice below and include a copy of this form with the UCEAP application form:

☐ English track
   All classes will be taken in English while studying at Sciences Po.
   No French language background is required.

☐ French track
   All classes are taught in French. A maximum of one class can be taken in English each semester.
   Two years of university level French are required by the end of the last term prior to departure. A minimum 3.2 French Language GPA is also required.

☐ Combination track
   Classes are taught in French and English.
   Two years of university level French are required by the end of the last term prior to departure. A minimum 3.2 French Language GPA is also required.
